(iv) The Compliance Officer shall place report on insider trading to the Board of Directors for the purpose of the Code and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and to the Chairman of the Board annually or at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors.

3. PRESERVATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

3.1 Need to Know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty in furtherance for a legitimate purpose and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

“Legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants etc.

The factors to be considered for determining what constitutes a Legitimate purpose, are defined in the Code of Fair Disclosure of UPSI of the Company

3.2 Limited access to confidential information

Norms for appropriate Chinese Walls procedures & processes will be as under –

i. To prevent the misuse of confidential information, the Company shall separate those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered “inside areas” from those areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered “public areas”.

ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any price sensitive information to any one in public area.

iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.

iv. Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Company.

v. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought “over the wall” and given access to UPSI on need-to-know basis Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and pass word, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use. Shredder should be used for the destruction of physical files.

3.3 Permitted Communication

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information may be disclosed, communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
- (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The names of such persons or entities along with their Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available, with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared Clause (3) as aforesaid, shall be maintained in a structured digital database. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. The Company Secretary shall be responsible for ensuring the maintenance of such database.

4. PROHIBITIONS ON TRADING OF SECURITIES

No insider, either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other person shall trade in the Securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

4.1 Trading Plan

An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the Trading Plan as per provisions of the regulations.

Upon approval of the Trading Plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the Trading Plan to the stock exchange(s).

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, Implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

5. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

5.1 Trading Window

The period prior to declaration of unpublished price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess unpublished price sensitive information. During such sensitive times, the Designated Persons will have to forego the opportunity of trading in the Company's securities. The Designated persons of the Company shall not deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed except when the sale or purchase is being undertaken pursuant to the trading plan approved under this Code. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as “Prohibited Period”.

The trading window shall, inter alia, be closed at the time of:

- Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual)
- Declaration of dividends (interim and final)
- Issue of securities by way of public/ rights/bonus, etc.
- Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects o Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-outs.
- Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking.
- Any significant changes in policies, plans or operations of the company.
- Any other matter / decision / information which in the opinion of the Management may materially affect the price of the Company's shares.

The period of closure shall begin 7 days before meeting of the Board of Directors or from the date of circulation of agenda papers pertaining to the subject referred above, whichever is longer, and shall end 48 hours after the information is submitted to the Stock Exchange.

All Designated Persons of the Company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the “Free Period” and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the “Prohibited Period” or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

5.2 Pre – clearance of Trade

All Designated Persons of the company who intend to deal in the securities of the company in excess of 500 equity shares in number shall pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as described herein below. No pre-clearance is required in case of trade undertaken pursuant to trading plan approved under this Code

An application for pre-clearance of trade may be made to the Compliance Officer in Pre Clearance Application Form along with Undertaking executed in favour of the Company (format enclosed as 'Appendix A').

The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Designated Person with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application. The Compliance Officer shall grant approval (in format enclosed as 'Appendix B') within 2 days from the date of acknowledgement. The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications & acknowledgements. In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the basis of possession of any unpublished Price sensitive information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent. If so requested by the Compliance Officer, Designated person must ensure that his stock broker is authorised to disclose to the Company all matters relevant to his share dealings.

Other restrictions

All Designated persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the designated persons must pre clear the transaction again.

The Designated Persons shall file the details of the tradewith the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (enclosed as 'Appendix C') within 2 (two) working days of from the date of execution of the Trade. In case the Trade is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall also be filed with the Compliance Officer in the same form within 2 working days after expiry of seven trading days of pre clearance approval.

All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

The restriction of contra-trade will not be applicable for trade pursuant to exercise of options or Trading Plan.

The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.

6. REPORTING REQUIREMENT

6.1 Initial Disclosure

Every Promoter or part of the promoter group, Key Managerial Personnel and Director shall disclose his holding of Securities of the Company as on the date of this Code taking effect, within thirty days of this Code taking effect, to the Company.

Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a Promoter or part of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a Promoter or part of the promoter group, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter or part of the promoter group.

Such disclosure shall be made within 2 trading days of such transaction.

The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange(s) within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

The Board / Compliance Officer may, at its discretion require any other Connected Person or class of Connected Persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in Securities of the Company at such frequency as may be determined by the Board / Compliance Officer in order to monitor compliance with the Regulations and this Code.

All Designated Persons shall file an annual statement in Appendix "A" to the Compliance Officer of their entire holding in the Company's Securities as on 31st March every year, along with the names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company .:

- (a) Immediate relatives
- (b) Persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- (c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them in addition to the aforesaid , details of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated along with the names of their past employers shall be disclosed on a one-time basis.

"material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer's annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions."

The annual statement should be filed by 30th April every year.

6.3 Reporting to Board and Audit Committee

The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors and Audit Committee on half yearly basis, details in connection with the following

- i. Pre-clearance request received, approved and rejected
- ii. Trading Plan approved
- iii. Disclosure received under the Regulations

7. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF THE CODE

Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her dependents).

Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalized and the Company may take appropriate action.

Designated Persons who violate the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, claw back, recovery, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc.

The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Regulations.

In case it is observed by the Company/Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, SEBI shall be informed by the Company.

8. RESPONSIBILITY / ACCOUNTABILITY

It is the duty of the Designated Person(s) to inform their relatives, being covered under this Code, about the requirement of the Code alongside the period of Trading Window closure from time to time.

The CEO or MD shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in the Regulations.

The Audit Committee shall review compliance with the provisions of these regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

Sensitization of team engaged in transactions involving UPSI

In case of any transaction in the Company which is of sensitive nature i.e. it may involve UPSI or may give rise to UPSI, then the respective head of the Department to which the transaction pertains shall ensure the following:

- I. UPSI shall be shared only on need-to-know basis
- II. A brief introduction of the Code shall be given to all the Parties involved in the transaction specifically duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information,
- III. In case persons/parties involved have not executed a non-disclosure agreement with the Company, then such agreement should be executed before sharing any UPSI.
- IV. Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law from such persons except in case of employee, with whom UPSI is being shared, is duly obtained.
- V. Where such UPSI is shared with Fiduciaries or Intermediaries, then such Fiduciaries or Intermediaries shall ensure the compliance of the aforesaid.

Leak or suspected leak of UPSI
